

Paramahansa Prajnanananda in Residence

The Tattendorf ashram was a scene of festivities with several yogacharyas, disciples and devotees from many countries come to pay their respects to Gurudev during the special Centenary year. From Sept 1- 6 there were discourses, initiations and guided meditations.

Foundation Day- Sept 6

The ashram celebrated the Foundation day on the 6th of September with great joy and devotion. Baba Prajnananandaji in his message on this special day said, "Let our heart be the real altar of devotion. Let every conscious breath be an offering at the inner altar. Let every word be a loving prayer. Let every thought be a flower at the inner altar. Let every action be the art of worshipping the divine. Let our life be a dedicated to this beautiful altar of sacrifice and surrender. Let us sacrifice our ego and emotion and evolve spiritually in our thoughts, words and activities."

Centenary Kongress in Vienna Sept 7-10

The solemn and manifold program was dedicated to the works of Gurudev Paramahansa Hariharananda. The highlights of the program were the several enlightening discourses presented by Baba Prajnananandaji that included Gurudev A life of love and service Gurudev's Legacy- How to lead a God conscious and Moral Life Indian Spiritual Tradition Our spiritual Journey -Importance of a Master to point the way. Life and teachings of incarnations.

Yogacharya Peter Baba spoke on the benefits of a yogic life style and Swami Mangalanandaji spoke on teachings and messages of Paramahansa Hariharananda. Several distinguished guests graced the occasion and paid their homage to Gurudev. Valther Innozenz varga, the former spiritual head of Dominican order in Austria and South Germany paying his tribute recalled how he had met Gurudev in May of 1992 during his first visit to Vienna.

Dr Sharma -Ambassador of India to Austria and Mrs. Meenu Sharrma took part in the festivities. A crucial point of the program was the focus on the introduction of humanitarian organizations helping projects in India. Vidyanandaji spoke about the activities of Prajnana Mission and Durga ma presented the activities of hand in Hand. Several talented artists presented beautiful performances of Indian music and dance in honor of gurudev.